

I currently am under the protection of the Indiana telephone solicitation law. I have found this law to be very effective in my case. I do not want to be bothered by any telephone sales at all. I do not pay a phone bill to have someone always pestering me. Therefore I am asking the FCC not to remove Indiana's telephone solicitating law for a Federal watered down version.

Yous truly

Ivan Fiscus